

Catch Me Crying

Nina Persson

Time, I've got a little bit of time behind me
I haven't even begun
If heaven falls all around me
I will follow it down

But you'll never catch me crying for you, my friend
You'll never catch me crying for you again

Precious, we got a lotta miles behind us
Still so far from the end
Mind, no good to go and try to rewind us
No beginning again

So you'll never catch me crying for you, my friend

You'll never catch me crying for you again

I won't go flailing my blues about
And moan over how I followed you down
And walk how we walked under the arches
When we fled to the edge of this town

But you'll never catch me crying for you, my friend
You'll never catch me crying for you again

You know it's useless this talking in circles again and again
You'll never catch me crying for you, my friend
