

Empire of Love

Nina

A moment like this is what we need
To save us
Holding you closer simplicity
Between us

Sun in the sky
And you're still mine
Fueling the fire
Crossing the line

And now I'm losing myself to you
In this Empire of Love
Now we have a chance to breakthrough
In this Empire of Love

Lost in the silence
There's space between the longing
Loving you deeper complicity
For ever

Sun in the sky
And you're still mine
Fueling the fire
Crossing the line

And now I'm losing myself to you
In this Empire of Love
Now we have a chance to breakthrough
In this Empire of Love

Lost in the silence
There's space between the longing
Loving you deeper complicity
For ever

Sun in the sky
And you're still mine
Fueling the fire
Crossing the line

And now I'm losing myself to you
In this Empire of Love
Now we have a chance to breakthrough
In this Empire of Love

With you by my side
I climb these walls
And you're gonna catch me if I fall
The feeling within is one trust
Oh Baby, so I'll be your queen and reign over us
