

Runaway

Nina

Runaway, runaway
Without a trace, no one to replace
But tonight is the race we're running, always running
Hide away, hide away
No one to blame for the choices we made
But tonight is the night we're trying, at least we're trying

Time will tell where the story goes
We lost our way, but we can find our meaning now
We all die young when searching for a way out

Here, we are one, don't give up hope tonight
We are strong, we are young, let's take a chance
Don't ever doubt our love will get us out
It's a long road ahead, but we gotta try
(Runaway, runaway)

Fade away, fade away
Now it's too late for the story to change
This life is a race we're running, always running
Break away, break away
It's not a game that we're choosing to play
We don't want it this way, we're trying, at least we're trying

Time will tell where the story goes
We lost our way, but we can find our meaning now
We all die young when searching for a way out

Here, we are one, don't give up hope tonight
We are strong, we are young, let's take a chance
Don't ever doubt our love will get us out
It's a long road ahead
But we are here
We are one, don't give up hope tonight!
We are stronger together, and younger forever, let's take a chance
Don't ever doubt our love will get us out
It's a long road ahead, but we gotta try
(Runaway, runaway)
(Runaway, runaway)
(Runaway, runaway)
(Runaway, runaway)
