

Afterglow

Nine Lashes

Our story time is told
And I'm blinded by the afterglow
Can you hear me dear?
Now I'm thumbing through the pages
Of the beautifully romantic years
I can hear you, dear

'Cause right in front of me,
You disappear
You're still vanishing
You left me here

I stand here today
So far from the same
It's hard to move on without you
So my God fill these spaces left in me
I'm so near to lost but I'm not
So near to lost but I'm not alone

Dear daddy don't you miss me?
Cause in heaven there's no room for tears
I can feel you here
As I'm thumbing through the pages
Seems forever's just too far away
When we meet again
I'll remember when

Right in front of me
You disappeared
You're still vanishing
You left me here,

I stand here today
So far from the same
It's hard to move on without you
So my God fill these spaces left in me
I'm so near to lost but I'm not
So near to lost but I'm not all alone

Not all alone
I'm not all alone
I'm not all alone

I stand here today
So far from the same
It's hard to move on without you
So my God fill these spaces left in me
I'm so near to lost but I'm not

I stand here today
So far from the same
It's hard to move on without you
So my God fill these spaces left in me
I'm so near to lost but I'm not
I'm everything but lost 'cause I'm not alone
