

Our Darkest Day

Nine Lashes

The ache isn't all
What we remember from cliques
Can we breath at all?
Collapsing from the way

Till I wake up
Screaming to lift you out
It's all that I can do
Today's when I will...

Scream
My lungs will break under my strain
All the way, all the way into your dreams
I won't believe you loved in vein
You never loved in vein

The strain's just a child
Just remember not to change
And all made to rise
The things that never fade

So I'll wake up
Screaming to lift you out
It's all that I can do
Today's when I will...

Scream
My lungs will break under my strain
All the way, all the way into your dreams
I won't believe you loved in vein
You never loved in vein

I live, I fail
So hear me now
Through the darkest night
I will scream your name aloud

Today's when I will
Scream
My lungs will break under my strain
A way unto your dreams
I won't believe you loved in vein
You never loved in vein
