

Shadows

Nine Lashes

Coming alive again
Now it's time to ignite again
Don't let the darkness in

I never want to be a dead man
Falling into my own black hole
I'd rather burn bright than break down
Light up the darkness that grows
Now won't you wake up with me
I cannot let you self destruct
There is a man waiting out past all our guilt
To take us home

Coming alive again
I know it's never too late
And now it's time to ignite again
Don't let the darkness in
We'll burn our shadows
Don't let the darkness in
We'll burn our shadows (Shadows, shadows, shadows, shadows)

I never want to be a blind man
Forgetting everything will end
Always an envy in my eye
And never satisfied
So won't you rise up with me
Rip out the sickness in our bones
There is a man named Forgiveness
And he will take us home

Coming alive again
I know it's never too late
And now it's time to ignite again
Don't let the darkness in
We'll burn our shadows
Don't let the darkness in
We'll burn our shadows (Shadows, shadows, shadows, shadows)

They hide in the deepest darkest place they can find
For they are lovers of their sin
Their crimes arise announcing their guilt
And their silence is deafening, deafening
Won't you run from the pain
Won't you stay far away
From their lies
Their lies
Their murderous pride
Don't you ever be misery's company

Coming alive again
I know it's never too late
Coming alive again

We'll burn our shadows (Shadows, shadows, shadows, shadows)
