

Millions

Nines

You know legends never die, man. So, you know you can't retire but you know it's an evolution. You know what I'm saying?

Zino Records

See, if I
If I ever told you that I need you
Another lie you should've seen through
Can't wait no time
I'm tryna see if I can build another line
Another million on my mind
Another million on my mind
Another million on my mind
And with this Rolex on my wrist, there ain't no time
Another million on my mind

She caught me, when I was drunk. She was lucky
It meant the world to her, but to me, it was just sucky sucky
I ain't had a job, bitch. I don't work
I had "O"s on the block like King Von and Durk

Rather be in Gambia with my nigga jigs
'Cause where I'm from, niggas in their 40s will stick up kids
It's mad
Still got kis for the right price
My weed got orange hair. It come like Ice Spice
I went down to my last gram
I set up a grow house, gripping threes like I'm Tarzan

Busy money-hunting
I told that chick, "No strings attached."
Even if we was bungee-jumping
I'd still be getting dough, if I ain't spit bars
These niggas are new money. Come like King Charles
I was busy building up the trap line
While the city need me like a bat sign

It's Nines

See, if I
If I ever told you that I need you
Another lie you should've seen through
Can't wait no time
I'm tryna see if I can build another line
Another million on my mind
Another million on my mind
Another million on my mind
And with this Rolex on my wrist, there ain't no time
Another million on my mind
Another million on my mind
Another million on my mind
And with this Rolex on my wrist, there ain't no time
Another million on my mind
