Nines

(Steel Banglez)

When you hear the ring-a-ling ding ding
Baby girl, you know the money's calling
When you hear the ring-a-ling ding ding
Baby girl, you know I got to leave to go
When you hear the ring-a-ling ding ding
Baby girl, you know the money's calling
When you hear the ring-a-ling ding ding (Uh)
Baby girl, you know I got to leave to go

She wanna know how long I'm gone for but I'm not sure
You know I'm still on the road even though I'm off tour
Last time I was gone for a week, turned my girl mad
Gotta come home with that lease and Chanel bag
And she more like my right hand
Always picks me up from the airport when my flight lands
She ain't no regular girl
Had to stop sellin' Cali's, I lost ten in the mail
Told my bro "Life's sweet", make it heaven or hell
Lookin' for them real niggas but they're dead or in jail
That's why I rather be with my bae overseas
Honestly, right now, I got way too much keys
She always thinks I'm entertaining these hoes
But I'm in love with the money, that's relationship goals, uh
And even though I live there, I'm never home
'Cause that's that money calling on that telephone

When you hear the ring-a-ling ding ding
Baby girl, you know the money's calling
When you hear the ring-a-ling ding ding
Baby girl, you know I got to leave to go
When you hear the ring-a-ling ding ding
Baby girl, you know the money's calling
When you hear the ring-a-ling ding ding
Baby girl, you know I got to leave to go

She know I put the work on the street
Forget the word on the street (One)
I'm puttin' work in the T
Every once in a while, go and work on the beat (One)
I just talk what I live
When I say we cop smoke, I ain't talkin' no spliff
That sawn off shotty, got it all off a shift
And that Nina turn a rock, that was caused by my wrist
Check my eyes, you see the pain from the tours that I did
Forget crying waterfalls, the water falls on my wrist
When the money start calling, I'm running, not walking (One)
Three for a twenty, six for a forty (One)
Babes, you look good but Elizabeth look gorgeous (Chale)
Gotta chase this money, the arse is enormous (Turn, turn, turn)
When I'm back home, you can get your back blown (One)
Love to watch you throw it back while I hold my crack phone (One)
D&G fragrance, say she love my tracksuit
Pussy so good, I nearly told her "Thank you" (Thank you, baby)

When you hear the ring-a-ling ding ding

Baby girl, you know the money's calling
When you hear the ring-a-ling ding ding
Baby girl, you know I got to leave to go
When you hear the ring-a-ling ding ding
Baby girl, you know the money's calling
When you hear the ring-a-ling ding ding
Baby girl, you know I got to leave to go
