

RIP Stylie

Nines

No-one knows what I'm feeling
I just wish, I could see you
Smile again, smile again
Never thought I'd lose a friend x2

Soon as I got the call I said "it's not true"
Can't believe my niggas dead I hope you know I got you
I swear down it's peak when I hold them guys
Keep seeing my niggas face, when I close my eyes
(Uh) Life never goes according to the plan
I'll give some money to your BM, to your daughter when I can
When you get there, hail up to Kia and my cousin
Ask the lord to forgive me, tell Zino that I love him
I'm angry with God, thinking 'why he have to choose you'
Fake niggas acting like they love you know who's true
So much pain in my heart, I wanna see my friend
Even though he's gone I know one day we'll meet again
You used to say I was a legend with the flow
My nigga said I'm gonna blow, now he's never gonna know
(Uh) Only reason why he died is cause' my nigga was brave
I'm pouring out Cognac on them visible graves
He was only 21, why he have to die...
I hate seeing the mandem and your family cry
You'll never be forgotten as long as I'm on
I'll big you up on all my songs I'm feeling fucked because you're gone
I love you Stylie

No-one knows what I'm feeling
I just wish, I could see you
Smile again, smile again
Never thought I'd lose a friend x2

Not a day goes by without you being on my mind
Every day I think about you, sit at home and cry
Looking back on all the things we shared, the laughter
Not a day goes by, when you don't cross my mind
Nobody knows (nobody knows)
The way this pain grows
I just can't believe that you have gone away
I can't control this feeling, I just hope to see your face
If I could see, see your face (see your face)
Only God knows your place (knows your place)

No-one knows what I'm feeling
I just wish, I could see you
Smile again, smile again
Never thought I'd lose a friend x2

Nobody knows
The way this pain grows
Nobody knows
