Krueger seems like Romper Room and Elm Street ain't so bad
When you meet death it ain't no dreams
A serpent in the form of a man
Tormentor, evil masacrator, betrayer, creator of sins
Fallen angel, king of lies, mock believers mesmerized
He steals the souls from young and old, the rotten bastard never dies
But I'll take you higher and I'll put Hell in it's place
I'll take you higher, cause Lucifer's a disgrace

No pain no gain, no guts no glory
A blood-thirsty, power-hungry man
Face to face I felt the fury of 100,000 demons commands
Dictater, Satan's terminator, desecrator, terror begins
Fallen angel, king of lies, Jack the Ripper's soul now cries
I threw him in the fiery pit and now the bastard's eating shit
Fought fire with fire, I put Hell in it's place
Fought fire with fire, cause Lucifer's a disgrace
