26A (Clouds in the Sky)

When I close my eyes, I see your face. The airplane flies
Like a time machine in space. I don't want to fall
I just want to fly back to you

Clouds in the Sky

Here I am. I'm a man with the child in his eyes
Your sweetest smile, your angry eye
When I lift you up. In the clear blue sky
I don't want to fall. I just want to fly back to you

Clouds in the Sky

I don't know where I am. Goodbye. Where I am
I know you live on in this world when I'm gone

Clouds in the Sky

When I close my eyes, I see your face. The airplane flies
Like a time machine in space. Here I am high above the ocean
Here I am in the clear blue sky. Here I am
