Yesterday

I was robbing a bank downtown
I was shooting the laminate parquet
The halogen ceiling lights
It was funny - there was no money
Crime doesn't pay
But I'm happy
And I'm so rich, so rich, so rich, so rich
So rich, so rich, so rich, so rich...

Yesterday

I was robbing a gas station
I was shooting the tin cans and the coffee machine
It was a sensation
I was happy - there was no money
And crime doesn't pay
But it is funny
And I'm so rich, so rich, so rich, so rich
So rich, so rich, so rich, so rich...

Yesterday

I was robbing a butcher's shop
I was shooting two medium steaks
And a big lamb chop
They were already dead
So I took the money
Crime pays and it's not funny
I am so sad, so sad, so sad, so sad
So sad, so sad, so sad, so sad...
