

21 Grams

Niykee Heaton

One, can you feel it?
I'll lead you to the deepest place
Season's change

Two, say hello to all your demons
Encrypted in your weakness
Burned on your skin
My lesions lay

All of my secrets have been lost in your eyes
I've been lonely for so long it feel so right to intertwine
I'll be your angel, of darkness tonight
So, bleed all my secrets and keep them in your pride
In your pride

Hold me
Say they don't
Owe me
I say
Ya Only
A little more
Away....

I just want your soul in my hands
Feel your weight of 21 grams

Three, still coherent?
Tip back your neck
And open wide, see inside
Four, hold me closer
Claw at your skin
Expose my binds
Watch me burn
And feel me rise

All of my secrets have been lost in your eyes
I've been lonely for so long it feel so right to intertwine
I'll be your angel, of darkness tonight
So, bleed all my secrets and keep them in your pride
In your pride

Hold me
Say they don't
Owe me
I say
Ya Only
A little more
Away....

I just want your soul in my hands
Feel your weight of 21 grams

I feel my soul is on fire
I feel this loneliness
I can't take this home with me I..

I feel my soul is on fire

I feel so lonely tonight
I feel my only control is Setting on fire

Hold me
Say they don't
Owe me
I say
Ya Only
Away....

I just want your soul in my hands
Feel your weight of 21 grams
