

Forget Me

NJOMZA

Shoulda known better
I had my doubts
Instead of staying witcha
When I wanted out
I'm way too loyal
Loyal to a fault
You're the only reason this shit fell apart
Yeah, fuck what you say
You're out my head
I gave you life
Now I'll leave you for dead
I'm on new stages
Watch me instead
Don't call my line
No, we won't make amends

Can you forget me now? Now
Can you forget? Can you forget?
Can you forget me now? Now
Can you forget? Can you forget?
Can you forget me now? Now
Can you forget? Can you forget?
Can you forget me now? Now
Can you forget? Can you forget?

They say don't stay and hope for changes
But somehow, I remained patient
Thought I'd fix you, but you're broken
Down to your foundation
And honestly, I've been here praying
For the next girl, tryna save you
'Cause you hopeless, I can't blame you
That's how mama raised you
Act like you moving on, but I can feel you, creep
Swiping up on my IG
Telling me I'm what you need
You made it difficult, I made it too easy
For a liar and a cheat
Sent your ass back to the streets

Can you forget me now? Now
Can you forget? Can you forget?
Can you forget me now? Now
Can you forget? Can you forget?
Can you forget me now? Now
Can you forget? Can you forget?
Can you forget me now? Now
Can you forget me now?
Can you forget me now?
Can you forget? Can you forget?
Can you forget me now?
