

Nightmare

NJOMZA

Don't you ever think of leaving me
Cause baby we are meant to be
My heart beats uncontrollably, yeah
When you are all around me

Anywhere you go it's fine
You know I'll always find you
Even when you're all alone
You'll feel me right behind you
So please look back
Don't leave, I don't wanna attack
No

I just wanna be the girl of your dreams
I don't wanna be, be your nightmare
If you're not being real with me
I'll be your nightmare
Be your nightmare

If you ever slip away from me
I'll make sure you end up in misery
I'll take away the air you breathe
If you wanna fucking mess with me

Anywhere you go it's fine
You know I'll always find you
Even when you're all alone
You'll feel me right behind you
So please look back
Don't leave, I don't wanna attack
No

I just wanna be the girl of your dreams
I don't wanna be, be your nightmare
If you're not being real with me
I'll be your nightmare
Be your nightmare

I'll be your ride or die no matter what you try
Whether you're wrong or right, I'll be by your side
And if I'm not in sight, I'm in your mind
You won't sleep at night
I'll be your nightmare

I just wanna be the girl of your dreams
I don't wanna be, be your nightmare
If you're not being real with me
I'll be your nightmare
Be your nightmare
