

One Foot In The Water

NJOMZA

Another morning hung over
How many times did I call you? (Too many times)
I lost track, think I lost my mind
Why you said that you love me?
Why you said that you want me?
When you gon' wake up and change your mind

I'll smoke my weed to let the feeling fade
I don't got time to play
Oh pardon me for getting in the way, I'll be on my way
Hard to believe you'll stay the same
It's different everyday
You always leave, but never all the way

So it's one foot in the water (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
One foot in the water (Why you, why you)
I'm waiting at the bottom
I need you to dive in

I ain't heard from you lately
I be thinking that you hate me
I know I tripped up a few times, I did
You always see you the realest
So why you always on bullshit?
You gotta re-rehearse your lines

I'll smoke my weed to let the feeling fade
I don't got time to play
Oh pardon me for getting in the way, I'll be on my way
Hard to believe you'll stay the same
It's different everyday
You always leave, but never all the way

So it's one foot in the water (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
One foot in the water (Why you, why you)
I'm waiting at the bottom
I need you to dive in

So it's one foot in the water (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
One foot in the water (Why you, why you)
I'm waiting at the bottom
I need you to dive in

One foot in the water (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
One foot in the water (Why you, why you)
I'm waiting at the bottom
I need you to dive in

So it's one foot in the water (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
One foot in the water (Why you, why you)
I'm waiting at the bottom
I need you to dive in
