

You Crying

NK

You crying
You crying
Freedom has now a different name
You crying
You are a survivor
Keep fighting

You crying
You crying
Freedom has now a different name
You crying
You are survivor
Keep fighting
My Ukraine
My Ukraine
Keep fighting Ukraine
My Ukraine

When the violence causes silence, we hear the beats of broken hearts
Angels are crying, blood soaks into the ground
When the violence causes silence, we hear whispers of broken dreams
Angels are crying, this nightmare is our every day scene

We've seen devils falling down from the sky
We've seen hell upon our ground
This is death singing a lullaby
But we'll never fall asleep or give up

You crying
You crying
Freedom has now a different name
You crying
You are a survivor
Keep fighting

You crying
You crying
Freedom has now a different name
You crying
You are a survivor
Keep fighting
My Ukraine
My Ukraine
Keep fighting
Ukraine
My Ukraine

We are dying, because of the stone-faced liars
They sneaked inside our homes at night
We are dying, but we will keep fighting
We on a side of the light!
