A midsummer night
Making stories in this forest
Right here, just you and I (Ah)

Pop the fireworks
Wonderful things gonna happen
(Hey, buckle up, get ready, get ready to dance)

Gazing eyes
In this moment when the moon is half asleep
(Hey, buckle up, get ready, get ready to dance)

A hitchhiker
Who wanders in this forest
I will take you
To the location you want

Hey! Right at this moment
Hey! The world just stop spinning

Hey! It's an endless night
MIXX it up, go!

Come on over right now
Come on over right now
'Cause party is not a party without you
Hurry up, join the party

Waiting for you right now

Gather on one by one, it's a party invitation
Confetti flying above our heads
Get ready, celebration!

Let's start our parade
Walking down Dream Avenue
The flowers' cheering, a feeling so untrue

In this forest
Sprinkle the stardust
I will go further
To the unreachable moon station
