

Love Supreme

Nneka

30 days have September
April, June and November
All the rest have 31
And I am looking for you

I've been running helter-skelter
On my mind like my shelter
You are, you were
And I've been looking for you

Only you are real love
Only you are real love
Only thing I know is real
Only thing so tangible

Only you are real love
Only you are real love
Only thing I know is real
Only thing so tangible

Sometimes I'm confused
Sometimes I feel used
Just don't comprehend how I need myself
I know that you are out there
Somewhere feeling breeze
Feel me in the wind
Oh, how you need me

'Cause only you are real love
Only you are real love
Only thing I know is real
Only thing so tangible

'Cause only you are real love
Only you are real love
Only thing I know is real
Only thing so tangible

('Cause only you are real love
Only you are real
Only thing I know is real
Only thing so tangible)

Only thing I know is you
You love, you love, you love, you love, you love
Only you are real love
You blossom in the sky
Only you are real love
Only thing I know is real
Only thing so tangible
