

The Last Revolution

No Connection

Huh

Got my blues
Got my army shoes
No way I can lose
Like it's always been
Got my chains
Got my bloody stains
Got my ticket to fame
Like it's always been

Got my schools
Got my holy rules
Got my sucker fools
Like it's always been
Got my dreams
Got my primal screams
Got my killing machines
Like it's always been

I'm just another brother
Who's never gonna win
It's history over and over
So let the party begin

Here comes the last revolution yeah
Here comes the last revolution baby

Yea, yeah
Yea, yeah
Yea, yeah, yeah
Yea, yeah
Yea, yeah
Yea, yeah, yeah

Got no fears
Got my lonely years
Got my childhood tears
Like it's always been
Got my lies
Got my tiger eyes
Got my brilliant disguise
Like it's always been

I'm just another brother
Who's never gonna win
It's history over and over
So let the party begin

Here comes the last revolution yeah
Here comes the last revolution baby
Here comes the last revolution yeah
Here comes the last revolution baby

Can you feel it
Can you feel it
