

The Humdrum Way

No Fun At All

I make my round, time will pass me
I choose the humdrum way
It's the highlight of the day
As people talk, I choose to listen
I'm here alone today
A distant frown I give to you

I follow the line with ease and patience
Talking my time to tick the boxes
Thinking out loud. You must be joking
I was looking around to find a rescue

When night comes round lights will pleas me
I choose the lonesome way
And a million shades of gray
No I won't step down, don't you try me
I m here alone today
A distant frown I give to you

I follow the line with ease and patience
Talking my time to tick the boxes
Thinking out loud. You must be joking
I was looking around to find a rescue

I follow the line with ease and patience
Talking my time to tick the boxes
Thinking out loud. You must be joking
I was looking around to find a rescue
