

You're in Control

No Fun At All

I have seen and I have said
Two faces I have worn
You laugh a bit and hurt yourself
Inside where it won't show

Oh shake me up when I go suffering in my soul
Shake me up when I go suffering in my soul
You won't let go. You won't let go
You're in control, I know

Make it clean and make it last
Don't let me entertain
To play it safe without a sound
And never to complain

Oh shake me up when I go suffering in my soul
Shake me up when I go suffering in my soul
You won't let go. You won't let go
You're in control, I know

So you think you got a masterplan
So you think you're like a superman
So you think you got a masterplan
Killing every expectation

So you think you got a masterplan
So you think you're like a superman
So you think you got a masterplan
Killing every expectation

So you think you got a masterplan
So you think you're like a superman
So you think you got a masterplan
Killing every expectation
