

Cut It Off

No Innocent Victim

You stumbled and fell
And the same place last week
Can't free yourself
From this vice that you repeat
Cut, go

Another direction, leave it behind
Decide in your heart, decide in your mind
Never going back because it's over
Cut it off and go
Cut it off and go

Looking back for a glance
But never stare
Don't think twice only acknowledge that it's there
Go
Cut it off and go

It's rot, disease
Don't try to justify it
You know as it grows
It will be harder to fight
Cut, go

It's a new beginning in your heart
A new found freedom breaking chains apart
Never going back because it's over
Cut it off and go
Cut it off and go
Don't give it a chance

Leave it behind
Let it wither and die    /x2
