Hello How Are You

Hello, how are you? Would be good to see you again Hello, where are you? I've been trying to reach you in vain

The emotion's written 'cross my face Like no rain drops in a sunny place All the people that you knew before Don't seem satisfied any more

I just contemplate the days we had Now the sorrow here and I feel so sad All this burning pain, so hard to contain All my memories on the nowhere train

Hello, how are you? Would be good to see you again Hello, where are you? I've been trying to reach you in vain

Since you left I began to feel so sad And my heart's been shaking with fear I remember now the times we've had And I think I wish you were here And I think I wish you were here Hello, how are you?

My imagination's driving me wild And I'm feeling like a silly child I keep hoping and I search the sky All I have now are the tears I cry

I just contemplate the days we had Now the sorrow's here and I feel so sad All this burning pain, so hard to contain All my memories on the nowhere train

Hello, how are you? Would be good to see you again Hello, where are you? I've been trying to reach you in vain

I remember now the times we've had And I think I wish you were here And I think I wish you were here Hello, how are you?

Hello, how are you? It's good to see you again Hello, where are you? I've been trying to reach you in vain Hello

Hello, how are you? It's good to see you again Hello, where are you? I've been trying to reach you in vain
