

Crossfire

No Resolve

When the shadows come
And the night is falling
And the voices tell you
This might be the end when

Screaming
When your heart is barely beating
When your lungs are barely breathing
Thinking this might be the end when

When you're caught in the
When you're caught in the
When you're caught in the

Crossfire
When you're going through hell
And you're screaming for help
Crossfire
When you're losing yourself
I'll be running to help
If you're broken again, this ain't the end
The darkness is the liar
Crossfire
When you're going through hell
And you're screaming for help
Hold on
Hold on

When you've loved and you lost
Broken into pieces
And your demons tell you
No one's gonna hear you

Screaming
When your heart is barely beating
Don't ever stop believing
'Cause this will be the end when

When you're caught in the
When you're caught in the
When you're caught in the

Crossfire
When you're going through hell
And you're screaming for help
Crossfire
When you're losing yourself
I'll be running to help
If you're broken again, this ain't the end
The darkness is the liar
Crossfire
When you're going through hell
Hold on
Hold on

When you're caught in the

When you're caught in the

Screaming
Don't ever stop believing, believing
'Cause this will be the end when

Crossfire
When you're going through hell
Crossfire
Crossfire
When you're going through hell
Hold on
Hold on

When you're caught in the
When you're caught in the
When you're caught in the
Crossfire
