

Get Me Out

No Resolve

Your skin, it's thin
Your skin, it's thin

The sky is falling on you
I know what you're after
My eyes so cold and abused
I know what you're after

I feel the pain wake up inside
I take the blame so I can hide
All the scars
You've stayed the same so long I've tried
To break the chains now I can find
All your scars

Get me out of here
So I can breathe
It's all become so clear
What lies beneath
Your skin (your skin), it's thin (it's thin)
You're never gonna keep me down
Get me out, just get me out of here

I've tried for so long, for you
I know what you're after
Your lies, still unknown (unknown)
The truth (the truth)
I know what you're after

I feel the pain wake up inside
I take the blame so I can hide
All the scars
You've stayed the same so long I've tried
To break the chains now I can find
All your scars

Get me out of here
So I can breathe
It's all become so clear
What lies beneath
Your skin (your skin), it's thin (it's thin)
You're never gonna keep me down
Get me out, just get me out of here

Whoa, whoa [x4]

Life can not go on this way
You're a walking tragedy (tragedy)
Stuck in here I need to leave (need to leave)
Stuck in here I'm breaking free (breaking free)

Your skin, it's thin
Your skin, it's thin
Your skin, it's thin
Your skin, it's thin

Get me out of here

So I can breathe
It's all become so clear
What lies beneath
Your skin (your skin), it's thin (it's thin)
You're never gonna keep me down
Get me out, just get me out of here

I feel the pain wake up inside
I take the blame so I can hide
All the scars
You've stayed the same so long I've tried
To break the chains now I can find
All your scars
