

The Pusher

No Resolve

Follow, follow me down
Down through the gates of hell
'Cause I know you better than your mother
Even better than you know yourself

'Cause everybody needs that perfect drug
And I could be the reason you get off

When you're on the ledge just need a little shove
I'll be your pusher now now, be your pusher now
Standing on the edge you'll never get enough
I'll be your pusher now now, be your pusher now
I'll be your pusher now now, be your pusher now now

I'm the thing coursing through your veins
Blurring what is right and wrong
So give in, give in to your demons
It's a feeling that's inside us all

'Cause everybody needs that perfect drug
And I could be the reason you get off

When you're on the ledge just need a little shove
I'll be your pusher now now, be your pusher now
Standing on the edge you'll never get enough
I'll be your pusher now now, be your pusher now
I'll be your pusher now now, be your pusher now now

I know who you are
You're an animal

When you're on the ledge just need a little shove
I'll be your pusher now now, be your pusher now
Standing on the edge you'll never get enough
I'll be your pusher now now, be your pusher now
I'll be your pusher now now, be your pusher now now
I'll be your pusher now now, be your pusher now now
