

Wake Up

No Resolve

I should've known
You'd put yourself before anyone
I should've seen this coming
You are the spark
That started the flame
That burned everyone
You should've seen this coming

This is a call
This is a call to
Wake up, wake up
Before you destroy us all
This is a call
This is a call to
Wake up, wake up, wake up

You've come undone
You can't see the pain in this tragedy
I should've seen this coming
Lost and alone
Even misery hates your company
You should've seen this coming

This is a call
This is a call to
Wake up, wake up
Before you destroy us all
This is a call
This is a call to
Wake up, wake up
Before you destroy us all

This is a call
This is a call to
Wake up, wake up
Before you destroy us all
This is a call
This is a call to
Wake up, wake up, wake up

This is a call
This is a call to
Wake up, wake up
Before you destroy us all
This is a call
This is a call to
Wake up, wake up
Before you destroy us all

This is a call
This is a call to
Wake up, wake up
Before you destroy us all
This is a call
This is a call to
Wake up, wake up, wake up
