

Do It Again

No Rome

I don't know what she's dreamin' of
I don't know what she's dreamin' of
I don't know what she's dreamin' of
I don't know what she's dreamin' of

She said she wouldn't do it again
Her intuition's tryna go and kill it again
The situation got a bit tense
She's walking down the bar cause she wants it to end
And you know that she wants all the drinks and the fun
She's lookin' in the bottle for a dream of a Benz
She said she wouldn't do it with friends

Fuck, forget it
She said she wouldn't do it again

She said she wouldn't do it again
She said she wouldn't do it again
My intuition failed me again
She said she wouldn't do it again
She said she wouldn't do it again
She said she wouldn't do it again
My intuition failed me again
She's gonna go and do it again

I don't know what she's dreamin' of
I don't know what she's dreamin' of
I don't know what she's dreamin' of
I don't know what she's dreamin' of

Dreamin' of her face on the regular Dreamin' of the boys and the girls on the cellular
If you gotta go, you should let 'em go
If you wanna talk turn the radio on
Think a little 'bout it if you really wanna
Keep my head together, what's the premonition?
Now we're on the bed watchin' television

Fuck, forget it
She said she wouldn't do it again

She said she wouldn't do it again
She said she wouldn't do it again
My intuition failed me again
She said she wouldn't do it again
She said she wouldn't do it again
She said she wouldn't do it again
My intuition failed me again
She's gonna go and do it again

Do it again
Gonna go and do it again
Cause if you wanna do it again
Her intuition's tryna go and do it again
If you wanna do it again
(I know what she's dreamin' of)
Her intuition's tryna go and do it again

(I know what she's dreamin' of)
