

Trust3000

No Rome

Trust in me, you'll find
Your own peace of mind
Trust in me, you'll find
Your own peace of mind

Trust is kinda mad, say you never call me
Telling me stupid shit, are you cheating on me?
I've been gettin' sad and a little lonely
You're more than I think about, but just you would dump me, damn

A Summer out in LA
And a couple weeks time, I'm back into the UK
You say I never make the time 'cause I spend it
I'm being honest, I'll be calling in a minute

Now, baby girl, now, you should know
Tell me how to figure out things
When you figured out our usual
Find a way of messin' up shit now listen to me

Tell me why are you so frustrated
Obviously you, it's complicated
Baby girl, I'm still down to see ya
I'll be there, I can guarantee it

Trust in me, you'll find
Your own peace of mind
Wishing you were mine
Thank you for your time

Trust in me, you'll find
Your own peace of mind
Wishing you were mine
Thank you for your time

(Trust in me, you'll find)
(Your own peace of mind)
(Trust in me, you'll find)
(Your own peace of mind)

Now baby, you don't do no rabbit in a hat trick
But not being honest takes some practice
I would reach out to you but now you should know
That the way I'm feeling is unusual
So I'll reach you when you calm down
Or maybe hit you when I come down
'Cause I'm feeling like you might wanna get into

But I'ma plea again, could you come through?
I'll slide to you if you want me to I'ma plea again, could you come through?
I'll slide to you if you want (I'll slide to you, slide to you)

'Cause you can tell me everything
And I provide you everything
And you can tell me everything
Say when it rings (Say when it rings, say when it rings)

Trust in me, you'll find
Your own peace of mind
Wishing you were mine
Thank you for your time

Trust in me, you'll find
Your own peace of mind
Wishing you were mine
Thank you for your time

(Trust in me, you'll find)
(Your own peace of mind)
(Trust in me, you'll find)
(Your own peace of mind)

(Trust in me, you'll find)
(Your own peace of mind)
(Trust in me, you'll find)
(Your own peace of mind)
