

Another Step

No Use for a Name

The iron curtain has been lifted just today
After war is finally over, a faction finds its way
The KGB is evil, tanks are running over people
Can't you see?
This country's on a ship

Navigating to a failing destiny
They're not afraid to, and won't hesitate to Take it up another step, take it up another step
Thought old ideals were gone but we were wrong
Now we see it hasn't left, now we see it hasn't left
Another step!
