

2 Bodies 1 Heart

Noah and the Whale

Oh place your hands
On my
Heart
Oh I do believe it's beating
At the same pulse as yours
We're two
Atoms in a molecule
Inseparably combined
Oh like a piece of rope
Made out of two pieces of vine

Oh I feel the bond
Oh between your heart and mine
And it's the bond that won't break
With the displacement of time

Cos we're just
Two Bodies with just one Heart
We're just
One body that one day fell apart
We're just
Two bodies with just one heart
We're just
One body that one day fell apart

Oh I'm only ever hoping
I can be there for you
Oh if Halloween and Christmas
Ever become confused
I will separate the demons
From the gift-givers for you
Oh I'll separate the Angels
From the Scary Witches too
To protect the bond
That I feel between our hearts

Oh because bonds can wear down
From the moment they start

But we're just
Two Bodies with just one Heart
We're just
One body that one day fell apart
We're just
Two bodies with just one heart
We're just
One body that one day fell apart
