

Everybody Needs Someone

Noah Cyrus

Oceans in between us
Mars and Venus, so far apart
Hoping, just barely hoping
Bleeding and broken from open hearts

Take my hand if you can take me as I am
And take my love, if you can love me that's enough
That's enough

But don't slip away before the dawn
Morning's about to come
And everybody needs someone
And I'll be here waiting
Oh, oh, yeah
Yeah, everybody needs someone
Oh, yeah
Yeah, everybody needs someone

Some nights you let your guard down
When the morning comes round you come round too
But if you could see us from a distance
You'd know I've always been so close to you

Take my hand if you can take me as I am
Take my love, if you can love me that's enough
That's enough

But don't slip away before the dawn
Morning's about to come
And everybody needs someone
And I'll be here waiting
Oh, oh, yeah
Yeah, everybody needs someone
Oh, oh, yeah
Yeah, everybody needs someone

Take my hand if you can take me as I am
Take my love, if you can love me that's enough
Take my hand if you can take me as I am
Take my love, if you can love me that's enough
