

Crystal Creek

Noah Gundersen

Is this everything you wanted?
Now that it's everything you have
Just a simple little sadness
Is it wrong, is it bad

You were looking for a meaning
Out in the crystal in the creek
When you saw it creeping up

Just wanted to be somebody
Just wanted to understand
Why you had to be so lonely
Did you have to be? Do you have to be?

'Cause now you're running on empty
And now you're running out of time
You used to be so hungry
How'd you get so tired?

What's it gonna take
What's it gonna take, baby
