

Last Name

Noah Schnacky

You're just kickin' back on my couch but girl you nailed it
How your messy bun killin' me, I don't even understand it
And your momma said to never leave the house without your makeup on Well no offense but if I'm real
You're more beautiful with it off

You don't know what you're doing but you're doing it right
You've got that effortless perfection and you don't even try
Don't ever hide a single freckle 'cause it's heaven's design
Yeah I pray you stay the same
The only thing I'd ever change
Is your last name yeah
Is your last name yeah

You know you got me like no one else ever has yeah
You're a Friday night Netflix sweatpants heart attack
I never knew that a little sleepy smile could drive me mad
But if I'm real it's a drug
And it keeps me comin' right back

You don't know what you're doing but you're doing it right
You've got that effortless perfection and you don't even try
Don't ever hide a single freckle 'cause it's heaven's design
Yeah I pray you stay the same
The only thing I'd ever change
Is your last name yeah
Is your last name yeah

I wouldn't rearrange a single thing
The only thing I'd change is your last name
I wouldn't rearrange a single thing
The only thing I'd change is your last name yeah

You don't know what you're doing but you're doing it right
You've got that effortless perfection and you don't even try
Don't ever hide a single freckle 'cause it's heaven's design
Yeah I pray you stay the same
The only thing I'd ever change
Yeah I pray you stay the same
The only thing I'm gonna change
Is your last name yeah
Is your last name yeah

Go baby stay the same
Don't you change
Don't ever no, no
Don't ever
Don't ever change
