NOAHFINNCE

I spent all thursday trying to write a happy song
Put it on tiktok ad have everybody sing along
Nothing political
Nothing too cynical
Give the people what they want
But what they want is
But what they want is

"ABCD" sounds so catchy
10 things that they'd rather think about
All this yelling
Isn't selling much

World collapsing
Look how pretty it burns
Hide the fracture
We'll keep hoping it turns
Apathetic
So pathetic
But we're singing along
Just admit it
We'll forget it
When we hear the anthem

If you're listening
Stick your fingers in your ears
Let me hear you say
La la la la la
La la la la la

All the terf wars
And the sick laws
It's their new cause
To take us back to 1984
The supreme court
Sends you through the back door

But nothing really matters cos

"ABCD" sounds so catchy
10 things that they'd rather think about
All this yelling
Isn't selling much

World collapsing
Look how pretty it burns
Hide the fracture
We'll keep hoping it turns

Apathetic
So pathetic
But we're singing along
Just admit it
We'll forget it
When we hear the anthem
If you're listening

Let me hear you say

La la la la la
La la la la la
La la la la la

They said
Hide your boys and Hide your girls they're
Cutting off their pretty curls
And how could they forget to say
They're better off than yesterday
They're better off than yesterday
They're better off than (fuck it)

World collapsing
Hide the fracture
We'll keep hoping it turns

Apathetic
So pathetic
But we're singing along
Just admit it
We'll forget it
When we hear the anthem
If you're listening
Stick your fingers in your ears
Let me hear you say

La la la la la
La la la la la
La la la la la
La la la la la
