

So sick and tired of you hiding, just show your true colours
You stick to lying 'cause you'll never face the repercussions
I see you smiling while you're leading the lamb to the slaughter
We're treading deep, I hope you drown inside your muddy waters

I know exactly what you are
I know exactly what it tastes like
I don't know how you got this far
(I think that you should)

Check yourself before I bite back
Your integrity is like a needle in a haystack
Wreck yourself just for a comeback
You're just a scumbag, la-la-la
You're just a scumbag, la-la-la

I hurt too, but I've got no respect
For all the shit that you project from your head
(Fucking sue me)

I know exactly what you are
I know exactly what it tastes like
I don't know how you got this far
(I think that you should)

Check yourself before I bite back
Your integrity is like a needle in a haystack
Wreck yourself just for a comeback
You're just a scumbag, la-la-la
You're just a scumbag, la-la-la

La-la-la

But joy can be found in the dark
Words that were spat at the boy with the mark, he'd tell you
"You can't break the spell when you've turned off the light
You're sentenced to Hell when you put up a fight"
I am what I am and I won't be ashamed
I take umbrage with hate that you scratched on your page
This inclusion delusion and gender confusion
Why are you assuming there's room for debate?
(I think that you should)

Check yourself before I bite back
Your integrity is like a needle in a haystack
Wreck yourself just for a comeback
You're just a scumbag, la-la-la
You're just a scumbag, la-la-la
