Feelings

Me nuh know, me nuh know, me nuh know, me nuh know

Feeling, oh, oh, oh, ayy

(EchoBeats)

Won't let you down, girl, you got my word
Fuck it, I'll give you the dictionary
Erase them other times I left you hurt
And let me show you how the new me move
Been 'cross the world, I can't find nothin' like you
I like your body when it's nothin' on you
I like your body when it's nothin' on you
Them hoes okay, but ain't got nothin' on you, ah
You can't live this moment twice and won't you let me film
I can give you every feeling you can't get from him
When you was drowning in your sins, I taught you how to swim

If you ever need company, just know I'm somewhere close
Made sure I watered you just so we could grow
Baby, it is obvious that I'm in love with you, girl
Heart's been racin', I've been waitin' just to see you
Baby, it is obvious, you know, that I'm in love with you, girl
Heart's been racin', I've been waitin' just to see you

All I ask that [?]

You have me mind and me heart, me [?]
I close my eyes so I can see you in the darkness
Would you love me still, baby girl, regardless?
Third eye open so I can see all the [?]
'Cause, baby, it is obvious, you know, that I'm in love with you, girl
Heart's been racin', I've been waitin' just to see you
Baby, it is obvious, you know, that I'm in love with you, girl
Heart's been racin', I've been waitin' just to see you, just to see you
See you, boo-boo, oh, keep my eyes closed to
Just to feel you, darling, I keep my heart vulnerable
Baby, it is unimaginary, the feelings I feel for you
It's euphoric, feelings [?] it 'cause it is obvious that I'm in love
Heart's been racin', I've been waitin', you know
I don't know what you really have been through
But I'm excited, I'm so in love with you

Baby, it is obvious, I'm in love with you, girl
Heart's been racin', I've been waitin' just to see you
Baby, it is obvious, you know, that I'm in love with you, girl
Heart's been racin', I've been waitin' just to see you, mm
See you, oh, oh
See you, oh
Just to see you
