Is you too good for me? Yeah
Yeah

If you said you wanted nothin', still'd give you everything
I'm out of tries because I realized it was all the same
It was right in front of me but I visioned different things
Everyone else was in the sand, it was always me to blame
Only thing you ever gave me was deep scars
No, you probably never save me, but you beating hearts
No matter if you fall, girl, it only take one call
I'll still cover up your ice, girl, even if the sun fall
The world is yours with no laws
No enforcement, your laws
I won't force it, your laws
Is you too good for me? Yeah

Percocet-10's, fuck you ten hours
Knock you down, clean it up, we need Twin Towers
I'ma knock you Austin, I got real powers
Let that money fall in, I take band showers
The dirt I did back then probably cost me
Countin' these bills, screamin', "Free Cosby"
They're still pickin' awards, now I got options
I'm just waitin' to get drafted since I'm the topic
I'm not walkin' out the bank but I'm waitin' on you alone (Alone waitin') Infatuated with Drake but tellin' me that this your favorite song (Your song
, yeah)
Break it up when I leave you (Leave)
Put you in Saint Laurent see-through (Everybody see, yeah)
Love turning me evil (Evil)
Feel like I'm under, beneath you (Like I'm beneath ya)
Bad vibes (Bad vibes)
Blind sides (Yeah, blind eye)
Risk guys (Risk guys)
No attachment, no ties (No, no)
Isn't your accent more lies?
Back in the hood with my gun out
In the cut like peroxide
I'm creepin' late, I ain't goin' in
Me and love just had a shootout

I'm out of tries because I realized it was all the same
It was right in front of me but I visioned different things
Everyone was in the sand, it was always me to blame
Only thing you ever gave me was deep scars
No, you probably never save me, but you beating hearts
No matter if you fall, girl, it only take one call
I'll still cover up your ice, girl, even if the sun fall
The world is yours with no laws
No enforcement, your laws
I won't force it, your laws
Is you too good for me? Yeah
