

Keep Me Waiting

NoCap

Don't keep me waitin'
Don't keep me waitin'
Don't keep me waitin'
Oh, so don't keep me waitin'

I need your company, tell me somethin'
'Cause if you don't, then I'ma die in this place
I need your company, tell me somethin'
'Cause if you don't, then I'ma die in this place
Waitin' on me

I had a dream we watched the sunset on rocks in Denver
Ain't postin' on your main page, so I check your Finsta
I called the chef and I was hopin' you'd make it to dinner
But you played this game cold as I write this letter

You in Cabo with your friends, I'll run this damn Benz
Through the water, through the land right to Mexico
You got your toes in the sand, you got problems, you got plans
I just wonder, can you fit me in your schedule?
It's already daytime on your side
It's already daytime on your side
Your side of the world
Your side of the
Your side of the world
Your side of the
Your side of the world

You hit the gym every week, that's why you fuck good
I know you incomplete, that's why your cup full
You can tell me that the fish tank an ocean
I just wanna see your face soon as the door spin

Seem like the only thing movin' is emotion
It look like everything movin' but me, damn

Don't keep me waitin'
Don't keep me waitin'
Don't keep me waitin'
Don't keep me waitin'
