Today, I looked over my shoulder
Hoping you'd be sitting here
I almost feel like I could see you
Can you see me?
(Al Geno on the track)

It's your words, so won't you think hard about the things we fi
nna do
I'm honest, I feel like Ray Charles, can see the innocent in yo u
Just vibe, I'm not askin' you for one thing Come on, we should travel like Lebron James to some place we do n't have to keep the door locked Life's short, never backwards, so I don't cry
But we young, let's enjoy youth 'fore it's gone by She know all my songs when we ride, she don't miss a tune
Come the way up in the skies, it's clouds in my livin' room
Soon I leave the house and hit the studio, she send me news Pops up but she still know it's a chance I go back to the hood and I make the news
I far, but the things that I cater to They ghost when I love, so it haunts me often Got plants on the wall and they still be talkin'

Devil on the right side of my shoulder waitin' on me to sin aga in
But I still feel like I could change
Girl, it's safe you can leave your heart here with me
I don't think it belong nowhere near the streets
He brought you Chanel and some Tiffany
But I buy you more, so why not work with me?

It's your words, so won't you think hard about the things we fi
nna do
I'm honest, I feel like Ray Charles, can see the innocent in yo
u
Just vibe, I'm not askin' you for one thing

Today I looked over my shoulder, hoping you could see the end I almost felt like I could see you, can you see me?
