(That shit gon' be crazy Jacc)

Swear that pain get so tough
All in all feel like I'm running out of luck
Can't make them happy, they'll laugh if I give up
In and out, that shit so tough, I wish the jail was running out of cuffs
I gave 'em everything I had, it wasn't enough
And I keep asking, what is love?
I regret when I was giving you my trust
I gave you chance after chance, you fucked it up
And I ain't gon' lie, the money good, but I don't think the industry for us
Rappers linking up and acting like they husbands
Ain't nobody untouchable
Watch them demons fall

Mulsanne, that's cheap, new chain on me
They aiming for my heart with that chrome, designer fiend
I know you can see the pain run through my face
You know I needed you, you ran away
You know what I been through, got all type of phases
One bad thought, won't talk the rest of the day
Money, it can't get me out of all situations
Stand on my own until they put me in the grave
Standing on the edge of a cliff with a long thirty clip
I put one up in the head

Swear that pain get so tough
All in all feel like I'm running out of luck
Can't make them happy, they'll laugh if I give up
In and out, that shit so tough, I wish the jail was running out of cuffs
I gave 'em everything I had, it wasn't enough
And I keep asking, what is love?
I regret when I was giving you my trust
I gave you chance after chance, you fucked it up
And I ain't gon' lie, the money good, but I don't think the industry for us
Rappers linking up and acting like they husbands
Ain't nobody untouchable
Watch them demons fall

Every time it's going wrong they always seem to blame me
Seen niggas get life or die, I made it off that same street
They done seen me how I turned them handcuffs to Cuban links, woah
Designer everything, I'm in the newest fashion
I'm tryna hide the pain behind these Gucci glasses
I know I'm fly as an eagle, I'm grinding like I'm Tony Hawk
When my shooters get bored, your mama gon' see nothing but chalk
Keep going, don't give up and give 'em something to talk about
And you just remember all them times that they let you down

Swear that pain get so tough
All in all feel like I'm running out of luck
Can't make them happy, they'll laugh if I give up
In and out, that shit so tough, I wish the jail was running out of cuffs
I gave 'em everything I had, it wasn't enough
And I keep asking, what is love?
I regret when I was giving you my trust
I gave you chance after chance, you fucked it up
