

Never Again

Nocturnal Rites

Father, father, help me
I have sinned again
I just killed my last friend, can I go, can I go?
Father please relieve me
From this cross I bear
Couldn't help myself, can't we let it be?

No, never again
Never the same, my friend
I owe my lesson learned
Never again
I'll never crash and burn again, again, again

Father, father hear me
I am on my knees
And our dirty secrets, I won't tell, I won't tell
I got the shortest straw here
You're really nowhere near
To each his own, I'm better off alone

No, never again
Never the same, my friend
I owe my lesson learned
Never again
I'll never crash and burn again, again, again

You'll never, you'll never learn
Just burn your bridges
I'll never, I'll never fall again
