

Adam

Nodes Of Ranvier

"This is a song about knowing my eight year old Brother will someday lose his innocence and How it scares me. It's also about wishing I still Had my innocence. It ends with a simple praise To Christ because, though our innocence is lost, And sin seems to constantly surround us, We have a hope, we have Grace. This song has no stone lyrics. It is all improvised. The song is new each time lyrically."