

Everybody Needs A Vice

NOFX

There's not one system I believe
Where we share morality
There's no single paradigm
In pursuit of liberty

Why will people think it's truth
Others will come less of me
Will there ever be a junction
Where everyone can just agree

Some believe in taking drugs
Others turn to Jesus Christ
Everybody wants redemption
Everybody needs a vice

Do we need to just survive
A process of relief
There's more than [?] for the soul to deal
With angry and grief

Should a person have control
Over what [?]
Who is anyone to dictate
What is wrong and what is right
