

Come Back Home

Noga Erez

You say you wanna build up bridges
You say you wanna glue and stitch this
You say you wanna go no secrets
What the fuck is this?
You say you want a tight connection
And I don't show enough affection
Dick move, got a big erection
Thought I should mention

I can't wait to hear the sound
Of you marching back in town
So won't you count it down?
Three, two, one

Come with your flowers, take off your shoes
They stopped the fire, I read the news
My love is timeless, I wait by the phone
Don't leave me hanging, please just come back home
Come back home
Come back home

We're in the kitchen, breaking dishes
Talking shit, throwing words and knives
This home is warfare, I'm shooting the flare
Because it's all fair in war and love
Or was it love and war?

I can't wait to hear the sound
Of you marching back in town
So won't you count it down?
Three, two, one

Come with your flowers, take off your shoes
They stopped the fire, I read the news
My love is timeless, I wait by the phone
Don't leave me hanging, please just come back home
Come back with flowers, hang up your shoes
I set the table, waiting for you
My love is timeless, I wait by the door
Don't leave me hanging
