People buy views, I know it's old news
But also bad news for everybody
People buy views, I know it's old news
But I got bad news for everybody
Holy water is no juice but I know us Jews
We don't like to lose to anybody
People buy views but I don't buy views
Don't turn on my fuse and watch your back

And watch your back, I break your neck
I pop a can of Ironlak and paint you black
Your name in black, the list, I'm keeping over-packed
The others keep the numbers fake and cut the ranks so
Everyday I'm low until I blow
Digging hell like call me Dasha Snow
Money let the puppets run the show
Under radar, calling me Jane Doe
Ándale, my B, we have to go, see ya later
Underrated, still it's me, LMAO
At the gate of Eden Garden, I'll be on the speedy boarding
Tiny trolley with my slate in, clean and shining
But they don't mind it, you gotta chime in

No, they don't know, they don't know what I keep in store
When I be counting big cash, they be on the score
They don't know, they don't know what I keep in store
Bye fools, buy views, touch wood, no
I don't pop with that (I don't pop with that)
I don't pop with that

Wait
One, two, three, four, five, six, seven
You ain't gettin' views and I know you jealous
Eight, nine, ten, Millie like eleven
I'ma elevate the bread 'til we get to heaven
I gotta whole lotta cash, blowin' it fast
Looking like I've stolen a stash, whoa, I'm the best, baby
Y'all lotta hate, not getting cake
I can tell that you represent that fakeness
Wait, yeah, shut the fuck up
I could tell your whole damn career is goin' under
Last year, I heated up the winter like the summer
So this year I'm messin up the budget (Sheesh)

No, they don't know, they don't know what I keep in store
When I be counting big cash, they be on the score
They don't know, they don't know what I keep in store
Bye fools, buy views, touch wood, no

Shit just hit the fan (Shit just hit the fan)
Shit just hit the fan (Shit just hit the fan)
Shit just hit the fan
Shit just hit the fan
