

Freedom

Noiseworks

Don't believe in temple faith
It's not the only thing that makes
You and I, you and I so different
You don't need to twist my mind
You don't need me to deny
In this day and age I would not sacrifice

Freedom
Freedom
Freedom
Freedom

We all have the choice to make
To be lost or to have faith
You and I, you and I together
If you believe in temple faith
If you believe that's what you need
You will find, you will find your freedom

Freedom
Freedom
Freedom
Freedom

Gotta give, gotta give all it takes
Gotta light the fire for freedom's sake
Gotta give, gotta give all it takes
Gotta light the fire for freedom's sake
Freedom, freedom
Freedom
