

Long Way

Noiseworks

There's a place I remember
It keeps haunting me inside
Left my heart on your table
Well, I guess I
Still got a long way to go

Prison cell is the memory
God it's taken me apart
See the girl now a woman
I guess I still got a long way
I still got a long way
I still got a long way to go

This feeling inside
Still dealing with the past
There's nowhere to hide
Seeing through
The looking glass

Sold your soul to a lawyer
Now I'm standing in the cold
Yeah, doing time seems forever
When it's all locked inside
Well, I guess I
Still got a long way
I still got a long way
I still got a long way to go

This feeling inside
Still dealing with the past
There's nowhere to hide
Seeing through
The looking glass

Oh, still a long way, yeah
'Gotta long long long
Long way
Still gotta long long long long way
I gotta long long long
Long way
Still gotta long long long
Long way
