

Oh, I need you right now
Everyday without you is hell
Girl cause you know that I fell
So madly for you
And I know this distance is hard
500 miles apart
And everyday seems a bit harder
Ya I'm living in hell

Oh I miss your sweet lips
I miss your steady kiss
The way you hold my hand
How you kiss me on my head
Tell me exactly how you feel
When you look me in the eyes
You say I love you
But I know that its fine girl
And I know in due time
Have a place of our own
I'll never have to be alone
I can't wait for that, babe
Girl, it kills me everyday
But I'm trying

Oh, I need you right now
Everyday without you is hell
Girl cause you know that I fell
So madly for you
And I know this distance is hard
500 miles apart
And everyday seems a bit harder
Ya I'm living in hell

Oh, I need you right now
Everyday without you is hell
Girl cause you know that I fell
So madly for you
And I know this distance is hard
500 miles apart
And everyday seems a bit harder
Ya I'm living in hell without you my girl
